County Budget

New information regarding county budget spending was shared with board members that was received from Chippewa County Clerk's office. Director Rose stated he is waiting for more clarification from our legal department, however, with the information shared on requests that the board can't approve, such as donations to food pantries:

Terri Bush motioned to rescind the approval of $2100 to the following food pantries:

- $700 to Community Action Agency
- $700 to New Hope Community Church
- $700 to Salvation Army

as previously approved during November meeting; and to be returned to the budget, Tom Boger supported. Motion approved.

November Budget Reports 2025 Reviewed, balance was discussed with the return of the $2100.

Terri Bush motioned to split the remaining balance 50/50 after December board per diem's, to purchase food and gas cards to be issued to Chippewa County residents when no other resource is available to them. Purchases of cards to be allocated throughout
